Date: 20.08.2025 (Monday)

Timings: 8:30 a.m. - 09:00 a.m.

Class Strength: 42

Topic: How School Promotes Tolerance among Students – 3 Ways

The enlightening programme was steered with charm and confidence by the eloquent Masters of Ceremony, Reshmika Shri and Nithish, whose seamless compere added grace and coherence to the flow of events. The session commenced with the Gayatri Mantra and the melodious D.A.V. Gaan, followed by a warm and heartfelt Welcome Address by Hashvitha.

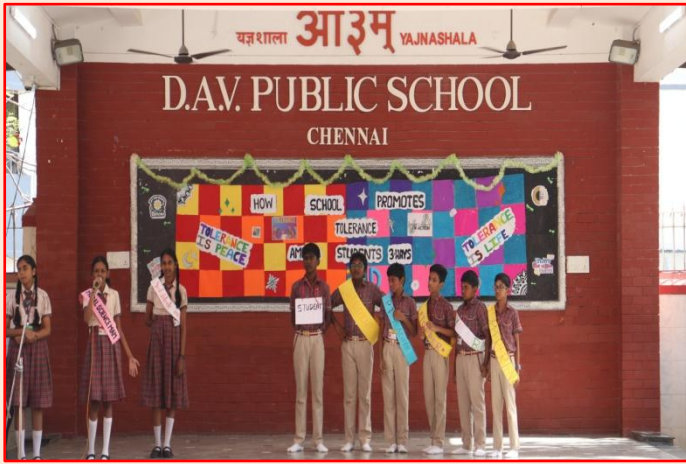

The assembly spotlighted a series of meaningful, value-based activities that vividly portrayed how schools nurture tolerance, empathy, and harmony in young minds. The Mirror Within - A powerful mime was enacted, depicting tolerance through a symbolic game of chess. The performance showcased how patience, acceptance, and empathy win over rigidity.

Echoes of Empathy - A captivating dance performance through rhythmic expressions and graceful movements, demonstrated how tolerance transcends language barriers and becomes a universal rhythm of life. Steps of Harmony - The sequence of Harmony emphasized the beauty of coexistence, urging students to embrace respect, peace, and understanding as the cornerstones of tolerance.

Tolerance Trivia - An engaging trivia session enabled students to reflect on their opinions and broaden their perspectives about tolerance in everyday life. Language Mania - Students pledged to embrace linguistic diversity by reciting the value of tolerance in multiple languages -Tamil, Telugu, Kannada, English, French, and Japanese, symbolizing the unity in diversity that defines India.

The Supervisory Head delivered an inspiring feedback speech, applauding the students' brilliant performance and their creative endeavors. The audience appreciated the well-curated programme for its seamless flow and the deep moral insight it imparted.

Oration of Gratitude - Inesh eloquently conveyed heartfelt thanks to all contributors. The event culminated with the soulful chanting of Shanti Paat and the spirited singing of the National Anthem, leaving everyone with a profound sense of peace and gratitude.
